DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 10, 23-25 and 30, drawn to a coloring sheet, classified in class 428, subclass 98.
 - II. Claims 11-14 and 26-29, drawn to a laminated panel, classified in class 52, subclass 451.
 - III. Claims 1-5 and 15-18, drawn to a method of forming a coloring sheet, classified in class 106, subclass 400.
 - IV. Claims 6-9 and 19-22, drawn to a method of forming a laminated panel, classified in class 156, subclass 307.1.
2. Inventions III and IV (Claims 1-9 and 15-22) and I and II (Claims 10-14 and 23-30) are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, the coloring sheet may be extruded without using a support.
3. Inventions II and I are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because invention I requires a matte finish for the first surface and that the first coloring material is distributed according to a pattern (Claim 23). Neither of those limitations are present in the laminated plastic building panel as claimed. The subcombination has a separate utility. A coloring sheet may cover a desk or other piece of furniture for a decorative effect.

4. Inventions IV and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because invention III requires “employing the texture of the support surface” to provide a matte finish to the first surface (Claim 1) and that the first coloring material is embedded in the coloring sheet (Claim 15). Invention IV does not require the limitations of invention III stated above.

5. The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.
